

Borealis Bullseyes – 2022 Travel Team

Head Coach Scott Henderson, Carson Myren, Dane Kersten, Annania Nickerson, Gabriela Zych, Joey Jigliotti.

Thank you to MidwayUSA Foundation, Safari Club International and Alaska Rifle Club for financial support!

Coach Henderson with Cathryn Papasodora who is now Assistant Rifle Coach at the University of Kentucky at the 2022 National 3PAR Championship. Gabriela Zych, shooting for the University of Memphis, with Kim Jettenberg, shooting for Jacksonville State University, at a collegiate competition.

Grants from our MidwayUSA Foundation endowment, Safari Club International Alaska Chapter and Alaska Rifle Club paid a significant portion of our operating and travel expenses. Birchwood Recreation and Shooting Park hosted an ammo raffle. Alaska Gun Collectors Association has always welcomed our participation at their gun shows. American Legion Post 28 sponsors our participation in the American Legion Junior Shooting Sports Program. Matanuska Valley Sportsmen and Alaska Rifle Club members have loaned smallbore rifles for use in training and competition. MidwayUSA Foundation Endowment Donors are listed on the Borealis Bullseyes' endowment profile page at <https://www.midwayusafoundation.org/team-profile/?id=R4060>. Sincere thanks from the Borealis Bullseyes Shooting Club for supporting Junior Olympic shooting sports.

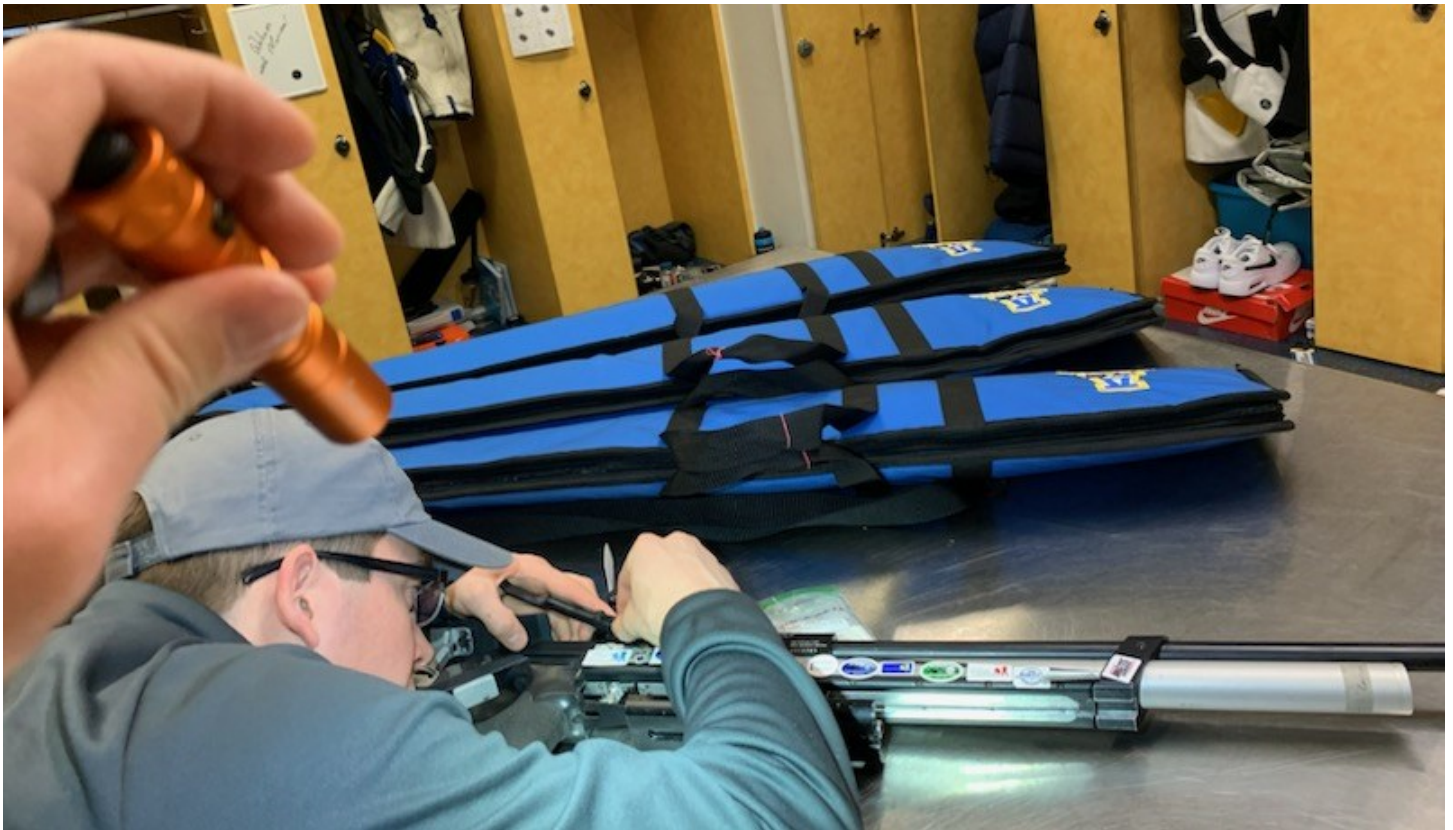

-2022 Highlights-

At the 2022 National 3-Position Air Rifle Championship Gabriela Zych, Annania Nickerson, Carson Myren and Dane Kersten placed 10th in the 3-Position Junior Olympic Championship and 13th in the CMP National 3-Position Championship out of a field of 40 teams. Gabriela was awarded Distinguished Air Rifle Badge #1608.

Coach Todd Yoon travelled to Fairbanks with seven athletes to attend the Alaska State Junior Olympic Rifle Championship at UAF. The Borealis Bullseyes roster included Bella Anderson, Cora Anderson, Claire Hemstreet, Clara Hoppe, Presley Kersten, Ahren Peterson and Sophie Wilts. Sophie placed third in smallbore. Borealis alumnus Carson Myren placed first in smallbore and second in air.

Spectators and competitors at the UAF Nanooks range.

Carson's air rifle required an emergency repair in the middle of his relay.

You can support the Borealis Bullseyes youth shooting activities by enrolling in Fred Meyer Community Rewards or Amazon Smile or by making a donation to our endowment or volunteering to help at the range.